Let's Kill Mom: Four Texas Teens and a Horrifying Murder Pact By Donna Fielder

In September, 2008, Roanoke, Texas, police discovered a house of horrors: poisoned pudding, a bathtub set up for electrocution, a bloody butcher knife, and a hank of chopped-off hair. The worst was yet to come...

Days before, seventeen-year-old Jennifer Bailey, her thirteen-year-old brother David, and their friends Paul Henson and Merrilee White had made a gruesome pact: they'd kill their parents, steal their cars and credit cards, and flee to Canada.

Paul and Merrilee's parents thwarted their fates, but Jennifer and David's mother Susan Bailey wasn't so lucky. When the devoted mother returned home from work, her two children and their friend Paul took turns stabbing her and slicing her throat. When they were done, they fled in Susan's car. They made it as far as South Dakota before being arrested.

What really led them to make such a despicable pact? The answers would cast a disturbing new light on the way we see the all-American family, our neighbors, our children—and the society that nurtured them.

As a university student exactly feel bored to reading. If their teacher asked them to go to the library or even make summary for some guide, they are complained. Just small students that has reading's spirit or real their hobby. They just do what the instructor want, like asked to the library. They go to generally there but nothing reading very seriously. Any students feel that reading is not important, boring and can't see colorful photographs on there. Yeah, it is to get complicated. Book is very important in your case. As we know that on this time, many ways to get whatever we really wish for. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. So , this Let's Kill Mom: Four Texas Teens and a Horrifying Murder Pact can make you experience more interested to read.
