About the Author

Kerrelyn Sparks, a former tap dancer and high school French teacher, has always searched for creative ways to express herself. A prolific reader since childhood, she discovered that writing her own stories provided the ideal way to combine her loves of comedy, language, and history. And what a relief that the voices in her head have led to a paycheck instead of a padded room. Now a New York Times bestselling author, Kerrelyn lives with her husband in the Greater Houston area.
