Editorial Review

Review

"A History of Western Society has been one of the very best textbooks available for the Western civilization survey course. Written in an engaging style, the text is accessible for undergraduates. The authors have utilized the most recent research and managed to keep the text relevant, not only with changes in our historical knowledge, but with an understanding of dimensions of global history and the way in which the West has impacted it, and been impacted by it." - Roy G. Koepp, University of Nebraska at Kearney, USA

About the Author

John P. McKay (Ph.D., University of California, Berkeley) is professor emeritus at the University of Illinois. He has written or edited numerous works, including the Herbert Baxter Adams Prize-winning book "Pioneers for Profit: Foreign Entrepreneurship and Russian Industrialization, 1885-1913." Clare Haru Crowston (Ph.D., Cornell University) teaches at the University of Illinois, where she is currently associate professor of history. She is the author of "Fabricating Women: The Seamstresses of Old Regime France, 1675-1791," which won the Berkshire and Hagley Prizes. She edited two special issues of the "Journal of Women's History," has published numerous journal articles and reviews, and is a past president of the Society for French Historical Studies.

Merry E. Wiesner-Hanks (Ph.D., University of Wisconsin-Madison) taught first at Augustana College in Illinois, and since 1985 at the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee, where she is currently UWM Distinguished Professor in the department of history. She is the coeditor of the "Sixteenth Century Journal" and the author or editor of more than twenty books, most recently "The Marvelous Hairy Girls: The Gonzales Sisters and Their Worlds" and "Gender in History." She is the former Chief Reader for Advanced Placement World History. Joe Perry (Ph.D., University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign) is Associate Professor of modern German and European history at Georgia State University. He has published numerous articles and is author of "Christmas in Germany: A Cultural History" (2010). His current research interests focus on issues of consumption, gender, and popular culture in West Germany and Western Europe after World War II."

What kind of hang-out type is it? Oh occur its mind hangout guys. What? Still don't have it, oh come on its referred to as reading friends.

Tonya Quick:

As a scholar exactly feel bored to reading. If their teacher asked them to go to the library or even make summary for some reserve, they are complained. Just tiny students that has reading's internal or real their interest. They just do what the teacher want, like asked to go to the library. They go to at this time there but nothing reading really. Any students feel that reading is not important, boring in addition to can't see colorful pictures on there. Yeah, it is to become complicated. Book is very important for yourself. As we know that on this era, many ways to get whatever we really wish for. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore , this A History of Western Society, Volume 2: From the Age of Exploration to the Present can make you experience more interested to read.
