For the Lady in Waiting By Nina Motivates

In my first book, Because I Love Me, I told all my business and showed how lost I was in the world when it came to dating. Then I proved that you can recover from unhealthy relationships, because I did. It has been a while since I have tried to date or showed interest in a man. I thought by now I would be ready for marriage, or be married. I have been sitting around waiting on God to send me my husband. I did not realize God was still molding me and that I was missing a piece of Him. An intimate relationship that I have yet to experience. It is true intimacy with God that truly prepares us for all the things He has for us, especially for a marriage that is rooted and grounded in Him! God must be the third string in a marriage. It starts with Him being the first string during the waiting period.
