Editorial Review

Review

As in Where There is No Doctor, the Hesperian Foundation has again created a clearly written and culturally sensitive book which can be used by healthcare providers throughout the world who care for women and their babies and families...an excellent resource providing accurate technical information. --Kathy Herschderfer, Secretary General, International Confederation of Midwives

This comprehensive text for midwives is beautifully written and illustrated for teaching purposes in areas of the world in which maternal and newborn morbidity and mortality are quite high. The book is our best tool so far for preventing unnecessary deaths. --Ina May Gaskin, author of Spiritual Midwifery

A Book for Midwives not only provided the template with which to teach in developing countries, but also helped us create an inclusive and grassroots approach to clinical teaching, while showing us how to stay professional as well. --Pam Silverstein, MD FACOG, Health Development Initiative-Rwanda

About the Author

Dr. Suellen Miller is the Director of Safe Motherhood Programs at the Bixby Center for Global Reproductive Health, Associate Professor at the University of California San Francisco and Associate Professor in the Maternal and Child Health Program at UC Berkeley's School of Public Health. Dr. Miller is an experienced maternal health clinician, having practiced as a certified nurse midwife for over thirty years. Dr. Miller has extensive experience in international reproductive health in a variety of countries and cultures, including: Ethiopia, Philippines, Sudan, Bolivia, Mexico, Nigeria, Egypt, Yemen, India, Zambia, Tibet, and Zimbabwe. She has created training programs for every level of health care worker, such as surgeons, village and community health workers, anesthesiologists, TBAs, and nurse-midwives. She has written over 50 articles and multiple book chapters on midwifery, and has been working with Hesperian Health Guides since 1992, contributing to Where There is No Doctor, Where Women Have No Doctor, and A Book for Midwives.

Susan Klein was a midwife who worked internationally and tragically died of a brain tumor as the book was nearing completion.

Fiona Thomson studied midwifery and homebirth with midwives, and now works as a registered nurse with chronically ill homeless patients in California.
