

Born After Midnight

By A. W. Tozer

Born After Midnight By A. W. Tozer

To speak to God on behalf of men is probably the highest service any of us can render.

The next is to speak to men in the name of God. Either is a privilege possible to us only through the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ.

To sit even for a moment in the chair of the teacher and write that which may affect the life and character of numerous persons is not only a lofty privilege but a grave responsibility as well.

The only qualifications I bring to the writing of these pages are love for the Triune

Godhead and a sorrowful concern for the spiritual welfare of the Church which our Lord purchased with His own blood.

If there is anything here good or helpful to the children of God it must be attributed to the operation of the Holy Spirit who often condescends to work through unworthy instruments. Whatever else may be found here is due to human weakness and is better forgotten.

My prayers go with this book and with all who may chance to read it.

Editorial Review

From the Back Cover

Will you press into heaven at the expense of earth?

It has been said that revivals are born after midnight. This is not because midnight is a magic hour—it isn't—but because anyone truly desiring renewal doesn't tire at seeking it.

Born After Midnight stirs us toward renewal. Be it in the realm of money, worship, worry, or prayer, A. W. Tozer applies God's high wisdom to our everyday living to show sin bitter and Christ sweet, helping us crave heaven and lose our taste for the world.

If you will take God for who He says He is, trust His promises as true, and forsake the world in clutching for heaven, it will cost you everything. But it will give you eternity. Born After Midnight invites you to seek what cannot be lost.
