In Desperate Need II: Sexy Stories, Memoirs & Musings By William Abbott

Scorching hot stories of frantic urgency—

A second volume of new and collected erotica The suspense rises and mischief and adventure abound as they hold on valiantly to bladders ready to explode, searching for somewhere—anywhere—to pee. The scenarios are varied and original, the characters are believable and likeable, and the action draws you in to leave you quivering with a kind of helpless urgency of your own...

William Abbott (as wabbott11) has been a prolific writer online, where his stories have been praised for their passion and vivid detail.

In Desperate Need (of which this is the second in a five-volume series) is his first published collection, including new material as well as selections from the best of his previously shared stories.
