Soul Survivor By James T. Wiley

Soul Survivor is a tale that never been told; Within the streets of Chicago lay a fraction of officers of the law, who are eager to achieve a goal within Chicago's Police Department that has less to do with their job description and more to do with their quest for money, power, and a piece of Chicago's underground economy. Casualties abound as the cops and the long standing members of street organizations end up in a deadly street poker match where the stakes include real-estate holdings, drug markets, absolute power and all the trappings of street life. However, neither contender realizes that there is an omnipotent force that has consummate power and resources that only one unprecedented Soul Survivor withstands when the story unravels. James T. ### Editorial Review

About the Author

Author James "Tony" Wiley was born and raised on Chicago's southside throughout its most drug-infested area called "Englewood". Growing up in a household with only a single mother and two older brothers he witnessed the terrors that came along with streetlife. This inspired him to develop a novel that would give light to those who could only imagine a community full of vacancies. James still resides in Chicago and utilizes his degree in Marketing Solutions all while letting the soars of complete imagination give him the energy to create Soul Survivor the sequel, followed by its debut series Wake Up Call!
